The Art Galleries Committee is made up of fourteen Councillors and in accordance with the Greater Manchester Act 1981 up to seven representatives of the University of Manchester ( currently 5 vacancies)

It is the Council's policy to consult people as fully as possible before making decisions which affect them. Members of the public do not have a right to speak at meetings but may do so if invited by the Chair. If you have a special interest in an item on the agenda and want to speak, tell the support Officer, who will pass on your request to the Chair. Groups of people will usually be asked to nominate a spokesperson. Some items may contain confidential information. These are usually dealt with at the end of the meeting, when members of the public will be asked to leave. It is policy that meetings are as open as possible and confidential business is kept to the minimum. Brief reasons for confidentiality are shown on the agenda sheet and there is an appeals process.
