

Manchester Health and Wellbeing Board Report for Information

Report to: Manchester Health and Wellbeing Board – 24 March 2021

Subject: Operation Eagle Update – Response to Variants of Concern

Report of: Director of Public Health

Summary

The Director of Public Health led a multiagency response to cases of Variants of Concern identified in Manchester in February 2021.

Responding to Variants of Concern is a key part of the government's four tests for moving through the Roadmap out of the pandemic.

This presentation describes the work that was undertaken to set up, manage and monitor Operation Eagle to respond to Variants of Concern in the city.

The presentation covers background, our approach and key messages, actions undertaken, outcomes, key learning and our future approach to managing Variants of Concern.
