Please describe the nature of the premises

The premises is a local street located on the moss side, fallowfield and rusholme border and sits besides platt fields park.

Please describe the nature of the event

The Redruth Street Party will be a family-friendly community event showcasing and highlighting moss sides multicultural communities using the medium of arts and crafts, food, creative community engagement and cultural storytelling.

The event would be a "Post Lockdown" celebration to mark the opening up of society and promotion of community cohesion through adversity.

The event is being funded by the Neighbourhood Investment Fund, programming a local get together which will take place in the heart of Moss side. The aim is to establish community connections and participation helping local residents to build meaningful relationships with those next door, during a time when social distancing has been on the agenda and people have forgotten how to be 'together'. The Redruth Street Party will be a welcoming and safe space for all local residents bridging the gap between many different cultures who are united by one thing - the area and street they live on . The long term intention is to encourage a network of souls to join forces, contributing and connecting to Manchester's cultural ecology & infrastructure.
