Subject: Event licensing.

Good afternoon Lauren.

I've been told to contact you directly for a event license that I'm enquiring about.

It's for the same type of event that a license was issued for last time if you need all the same information I can send them across?

It'll be for the the same venue and the same management plan will be used I'll attach it to an email if you need it again.

I have the same djs and security team working and can get details sent over again I'm not sure if use keep records but everything was sent over last time.

Empire house, 2 empire street

M3 1JA.

Friday 19th may

Thank you.

Jayvon Morgan.

Hi Jayvon,

If there is no licence in place for this evening, 19 May 2023, then licensable activities would not be permitted to go ahead.

Please see details below of how to apply for a temporary event in future:

Licensing - Temporary event notice (TEN) | Manchester City Council

Kind regards

Ben

Exhibit C

On the 20.5.23 at 01:01 officers arrived and parked on Empire street across the road

24/ 5/2023 13:56 SA0

we spoke to door staff and explained who we were and they got the manager of the venue, [REDACTED], to come down to us. We walked in the premises and through the main room toward the stairs. In the main room the music was playing, there were only a few (approx 5) people in there. On the left of this room was a staffed hatch where alcohol was on display for sale. We followed [REDACTED] up to his office and he told us there was a TEN in for the event tonight and produced a paper copy of a TEN from a file. I asked if the name on the TEN was him and if he had applied for this TEN and he said no, it was Jayvon who had submitted the TEN. As I looked at the TEN I noticed the date of the event, 19/5/23, looked odd and not like the other text on the TEN. I then noticed at the bottom of each page was the date it was submitted, 15/10/22, which seemed odd as this was months ago. I called MC9 to check the TEN submitted on that date and it was for an event in November 2022. I took some photos of the TEN. We informed [REDACTED] there was no TEN for tonight and he tried to call Jayvon to confirm this, but got no answer. [REDACTED] said he would stop the event now. He went downstairs and turned the music off and told the door staff the event was cancelled. I noticed more and more people arriving and waiting outside the venue. Not wanting to get trapped I suggested to BC2 we needed to leave now and we did. As we left there were approx 20-30 people outside stood in the street. While no one hostile to us we could feel the tension so left immediately.
