

Appendix 1 - Glossary

“Land Value” – is the value of a piece of property including both the value of the land itself as well as any improvements that have been made to it.

“Market Forces” – the economic factors affecting the price of, demand for, and availability of a commodity.