Appendix 2: Economic Strategy Progress Measures

Desired trend	Measure	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	2016	2017	2018	2019	2020	2021	202
Resident prosperity
Increase median full-time pay in Manchester faster than the	Difference between Manchester and England rate national average rate.		-1.9%	2.0%	0.8%	0.9%	-4.3%	1.7%	2.9%	-2.5%	-0.1%	-1.5%	1.1%	2.7
Increase the proportion of Manchester residents being paid a	% paid less than real living wage - Residents - Manchester
Real Living Wage.					70.3	73.4	69.5	72.9	72.4	78.2	77	77.3	8
	Difference between Manchester and England rate
Reduce unemployment to within 2% of the national average		3.6%	4.9%	3.1%	3.2%	2.5%	2.7%	1.2%	1.1%	1.9%	2.0%	2.1%	2.7
Keep the ratio of house prices to earnings in Manchester below	Difference between Manchester and England ratio
the national average.		-1.14	-1.62	-1.7	-1.6	-1.9	-1.6	-1.49	-1.55	-1.12	-0.94	-1.06	-0.3
Economic Performance
Increase the total size of Manchester's economy in GVA terms	Difference between Manchester and England rate faster than the national average		-2.1%	2.2%	-1.4%	-0.9%	2.1%	3.1%	4.4%	0.4%	3.6%	0.9%	1.4%
Reduce the overall carbon intensity of Manchester's economic	To be developed output
Increase the total GVA per worker faster than the national	Different between Manchester and England rates
average			1.2%	-1.6%	-1.5%	-0.1%	1.4%	4.7%	0.8%	3.1%	0.5%	3.2%
Increase the total number of jobs in Manchester faster than the	Difference between Manchester and England rate
national average						5.4%	2.1%	0.8%	1.7%	2.2%	-0.7%
Increase the share of graduates working in higher skilled	To be developed employment
	To be developed Increase the amount and density of residential and commercial sites within the city centre and adjacent sites.
Increase the total number of workers within a defined travel to	To be developed work area.													